Greetings to all, once again!

We are happy to meet you, in this way, once again. To our deep regret, this will be our last holiday letter to you. Hereafter, you will always receive a card. Though it will carry no personal word, we ask a favor of you. Do read between the lines the message that you surely must know we are sending.

The eyes of the "correspondent" demand a long rest (due to a cataract). We wish you could know what this project has meant to us, through all these years. We've had the great privilege of meeting some of you in person, some in our own home. Others have kept in touch with us by mail, and even by phone. We hold genuine appreciation for the splendid service you have given, in your particular field, to hosts of people who have been unable to tell you so.

We seek yet another favor, and trust it will not be a burden to you. If you have a home or permanent mailing address, please let us have it. Should that change, will you send us a post-card with the new address, especially as the holiday season approaches?

To the Networks, the Press, the News Agencies, to all others, our gratitude, warm and sincere, for their gracious and untiring effort to keep us posted on your addresses, at this season, year after year. Seventeen years ago, the first photos, for the gallery, came. Some of our Great Guys have passed on, but their photos and mail are still treasured. Some autographed and dated photos are still missing and vacant places still waiting for them. We shall keep looking for them -- till they come. Soon? Please!

God grant that the Divine Spark in man will be fanned into flame, consuming self-seeking, hatred and prejudice. When we pray, "Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven", may we acknowledge that His Will is Love and Peace for all men, everywhere, for He is no respecter of persons. "All ye are brethren".

The world still waits for the sunrise of that day when Peace shall usher in the dawn of our one-world's glory as God planned and created it. It is for us so to live that it will be brought into visibility.

Faithfully,
